PROPERS FOR SECOND SUNDAY AFTER EASTER

Introit: Ps. 32:5,6,1

The earth is full of the mercy of the Lord, alleluia: by the word of the Lord the heavens were established, alleluia. Rejoice in the Lord, O ye just; praise becometh the upright.

Collect: Oratio Pro Papa

Deus, ómnium fidélium pastor et rector, fámulum tuum Leo, quem pastórem ecclésiæ tuæ præesse voluissi, propítius respice: da ei, qu æsumus, verbo et exémplo, quibus præest, proficere: ut ad vitam, una cum grege sibi crédito, pervéniat sempitérnam. Per Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum, Filium tuum: qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitate Spiritus Sancti Deus, per omnia saecula saeculorum.

Lesson: 1 Peter 2:21-25

Dearly beloved, Christ suffered for us, leaving you an example, that you should follow His steps, Who did no sin, neither was guile found in His mouth. Who when He was reviled, did not revile: when He suffered, He threatened not, but delivered Himself to him that judged Him unjustly: Who His own self bore our sins in His body upon the tree: that we, being dead to sins, should live to justice: by Whose stripes you were healed. For you were as sheep going astray, but you are now converted to the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

Alleluia

Alleluia, alleluia.

Luke 24:35 V. The disciples knew the Lord Jesus in the breaking of bread. Alleluia.

John 10:14 I am the good Shepherd: and I know My sheep, and Mine know Me. Alleluia.

Gospel: John 10:11-16

At that time Jesus said to the Pharisees: I am the good Shepherd. The good Shepherd giveth His life for His sheep. But the hireling, and he that is not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth and scattereth the sheep: and the hireling fleeth, because he is a hireling and he hath no care for the sheep. I am the good Shepherd: and I know Mine, and Mine know Me, as the Father knoweth Me, and I know the Father: and I lay down My life for My sheep. And the other sheep I have that are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they shall hear My voice, and there shall be one fold and one shepherd.

TO ENSURE GOOD ORDER and to keep everything family- and faith-friendly here at Saint Josaphat, please do not leave any publications — books, pamphlets, audio or visual media, holy cards, or similar materials — in the church or in the vestibule without Canon's explicit prior approval.

The Rogations

by Dom Prosper Guéranger, abbot of Solesmes
(Excerpt from The Liturgical Year)

The object of the Rogation Days is to appease the anger of God, and avert the chastisements which the sins of the world so justly deserve; moreover, to draw down the divine blessing on the fruits of the earth. The Litany of the Saints is sung during the Procession, which is followed by a special Mass said in the Stational Church, or if there be no Station appointed, in the Church whence the Procession first started.

The Litany of the Saints is one of the most efficacious of prayers. The Church makes use of it on all solemn occasions, as a means for rendering God propitious through the intercession of the whole court of heaven. They who are prevented from assisting at the Procession, should recite the Litany in union with holy Church: they will thus share in the graces attached to the Rogation Days; they will be joining in the supplications now being made throughout the entire world; they will be proving themselves to be Catholics.

The Mass of the Rogations is the same for all three days. It speaks to us, throughout, of the power and necessity of prayer. The Church uses the Lenten colour, to express the expiatory character of the function she is celebrating: but she is evidently full of confidence; she trusts to the love of her Risen Jesus, and that gives her hope of her prayers being granted.

THE CARMELITE OBLATES meet on the first Saturday of every month, after Holy Mass, and host a public Holy Face Devotion on the third Sunday of every month at 3:00 pm in the Oratory.

THE PADRE PIO PRAYER GROUP meets the 1st Tuesday of every month. (Mass in the Ordinary Form, 7:00 pm)

Interested Catholic men may speak to one of the ushers after Mass or come to their table at the convivium in St Josaphat's Hall.

LEGION OF MARY Members meet every Monday night at 5:15 p.m.

THE RIGHT TO LIFE COMMITTEE meets the 2nd Thursday of the month (except July and August) at 7:30 pm

To All Our Guests:

Canon Hellmann and the faithful of St. Josaphat Oratory welcome you, and hope that this visit—whether it be your first or your only—may be an opportunity to experience the riches and beauty of the perennial tradition of the Roman Catholic faith, expressed in the classical Roman Liturgy.

Without worrying about making perfect sense of everything or following along word-for-word in your missal or booklet, rather enjoy the beauty of this liturgy, which has produced countless generations of saints and in actuality defines and governs the life of our Institute and all its members: priest-canon, seminarians, oblates, and Sister Adorers.

In keeping with liturgical tradition in the Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite, Holy Communion is received on the tongue and, if you are able, kneeling. Visitors who are not Roman Catholic are welcome to join us in prayer, but are requested not to receive Holy Communion. Because the reception of Holy Communion is the expression of complete union with God and His Church, only practicing Catholics who are in full communion with the Catholic Church and free from mortal sin should present themselves to receive. We pray for the full, visible unity of all Christians.

To receive more information about the Oratory, or if you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church, please contact the rectory. St. Josaphat Oratory is an apostolate of the Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest in the Diocese of Brooklyn, New York.

All contributions to the Oratory are sincerely appreciated and are tax-deductible.
