Many parishioners have asked us about an on going food pantry. St. Josaphat's does not have the space to keep an ongoing food bin. Therefore, we have decided that we will have a FREE WILL donation box in the vestibule of the church (near St. Mother Teresa's statue) for weekly collections. In this way, once a month we will be able to send a check to St. Michael's Food Pantry in Flushing. They have been the recipients of our two yearly food drives - Thanksgiving & Easter. Unfortunately, people are hungry not only on holidays and hope that an on going collection will help alleviate some of the hunger that exists so close to us. As always, we thank our parishioners for their generosity.

Small group Bible Study at Saint Josaphat's.

We meet on the 2nd and 4th Thursday of the month at 7:00 PM in the Lower Rectory Meeting Room. All are welcome. For more info please contact Kathy Rojas at: april1053@aol.com.

DEVELOPMENT OF THE UNBORN CHILD

 Week 19 - If you were to shine a very bright light on my Mother's abdomen, I may slowly move my hand in front of my eyes. If you make a very loud noise, I may cover my ears with my hands. But I can also hear my Mom's voice, and when she sings a lullaby, it soothes me, and helps me sleep.
 "I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well." (Psalm 139.14)

The Bridge to Life, Inc. would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to Rev. Andrzej Klocek and the parishioners of St. Josaphat's Parish for a wonderfully successful Baby Bottle Campaign for 2016. Bridge serves thousands of mothers and families annually, providing them with material assistance, counseling and, most importantly, hope. Our mission of bringing support and compassion into the lives of these families, just as they bring joy into our own lives, can only be continued with your support. Thank you for allowing us to continue to serve and help mothers choose life.

A jar of honey lasts practically forever. The oldest jar of honey ever discovered was over five thousand years old. Honey is quite different from market-fresh produce, then; because most fruits and vegetables last only a few days, we treat them carefully. At this time of summer, we rush to find recipes for cherries and cucumbers so we won't waste a single one. We wouldn't feel that same urgency about honey.

In our own way, we are as delightful and fragile as ripe produce. Today's readings urge us not to spoil, but to make good use of our limited time on earth. Ecclesiastes reminds us that because God provides for us now and always, we can manage our daily affairs without anxiety. Saint Paul encourages the Colossians to keep thoughts of heaven in everything they do, and Jesus himself asks us to treasure not earthly wealth, but God alone.

TIME TO DUST

Ruth Hulburt Hamilton wrote a poem called "Song for a Fifth Child" about the many demands on a mother's time. The poem's final two lines show how the mother has sorted out her priorities as she urges the cobwebs and dust to quiet down and go to sleep so that she can rock her baby because "babies don't keep." This popular poem has helped countless caregivers resolve to spend less time working and more time playing with their children. Ecclesiastes seems to affirm this resolution, suggesting that a perfectly tidy and well-dusted house will eventually come to nothing.

And yet, we don't want children to grow up in squalor. At some point even less important work needs to get done. We ask the Lord, then, to guide our hearts and help us choose how to spend our time in a way that pleases God best. Even the thankless, repetitive task of dusting the house can help us pray in this way. Dust reminds us where we came from and where we're headed. Human beings are made from dust, and to dust we will return (see Ecclesiastes 3:20).

Jubilee Year of Mercy Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you" (Luke 12:20). Hardly sounds like mercy! Unlike some contemporary rich folks, there is no indication of lying, stealing, or cheating in Jesus' parable. The rich man made a living, not a killing. Why does Jesus name him "fool"? First, because of presumption. Five times in nine verses, the rich man declares, "I shall." God's not in charge here, I am! Second, selfishness--four times, "my/myself." No God, no neighbor; he talks to himself, about himself: my possessions, my productivity, my plans! So, instead of chasing "treasure for ourselves," Jesus and Pope Francis' Jubilee Year of Mercy bid us grow "rich in what matters to God" (12:21), namely, the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. Give food, drink, clothing, and healing; visit the imprisoned; bury the dead. Heal with Jesus' own gentleness the doubt, ignorance, and sins of others; comfort, forgive, be patient; and pray for the living and dead. --Peter Scagnelli, Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.
