Reflecting on God's Word

"If it does not please you to serve the LORD," Joshua enjoins the tribes of Israel at Shechem, "decide today whom you will serve." And the people answered: "Far be it from us to forsake the LORD to serve other gods," going on to name the deeds the Lord had done for them (Joshua 24:15, 16).

Centuries later, after hearing Jesus call himself bread to be eaten, descendants of those at Shechem said: "This saying is hard; who can accept it?" And they "no longer accompanied him." Jesus then asked the Twelve if they would leave too. Simon answered for all: "We have come to believe and are convinced you are the Holy One of God" (John 6:60, 66, 69).

Our response is a simple but weighty Amen (meaning "So be it"). When the consecrated host is held up, accompanied by "The Body of Christ," and the cup offered with "The Blood of Christ," we are asked to put our faith on the line and say, "Amen." Has familiarity bred contentment? Are we so used to this mystery that we rarely have a sense of awe or wonder? The first act of faith is believing that God is present in things as ordinary as this bread and wine. We believe that the bread and wine are changed into the Body and Blood of Christ. What is the change in us that should accompany receiving them?

But of such stuff dreams are made—God's dream of a family, loving daughters and sons, gathered around a table to say "Amen," then to live Communion in a world of broken bodies, shed blood, wounded hearts, and crushed spirits. When we say "Amen" to this mystery, who knows what might happen?—James A. Wallace, C.S.R.

Living God's Word

Jesus, you came from the Father and returned to the Father and remain ever near the Father's heart. You remain the Father's Word of love to us, the Word of the Father's commitment to us; draw us into being "Amen" as you were also "Amen" to the Father's will. Amen.

The Beginning Experience weekend is time to focus on you.... to feel understood by peers and experience a sense of peace and a renewed hope for the future. The next weekend is on Long Island on September 11th-13th, 2015.
